Study in United Kingdom

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, commonly known as the United Kingdom (UK or U.K.) or Britain, is a sovereign country located off the northwestern coast of the European mainland. The United Kingdom includes the island of Great Britain, the northeastern part of the island of Ireland, and many smaller islands. Northern Ireland shares a land border with the Republic of Ireland. Otherwise, the United Kingdom is surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean, with the North Sea to the east, the English Channel to the south and the Celtic Sea to the southwest, giving it the 12th-longest coastline in the world. The Irish Sea separates Great Britain and Ireland. The total area of the United Kingdom is 94,000 square miles (240,000 km²).

The UK Education System

INQUEST INTELLIGENCE BIZZ
Your Future Success Is Our Achievement

Every word you say about the UK education system is abundant. The United Kingdom education system is one of the most eminent in the world. Many countries in the world actually adopted the British school system with minor changes. Some of the British universities are worldwide known for their outstanding quality with particular ones topping the global rankings.

Britons start their education at the very young age, usually at three. At the minimum, they're obliged to finish secondary school (compulsory education). The British education system has in total five stages: early years, primary years, secondary education, Further Education (FE) and Higher Education (HE).

With its world-class universities, advanced programs, and teaching, the UK education system is a magnet for the international students. They share a significant part of the British student population.

The UK universities are home to more than a million foreign students. These figures make the country the second most popular study destination after the US.

Courses in the UK are tailor-made to support you in getting the most from your studies as quickly as possible.

- Many universities allow you to choose from different subject 'modules', so you can build a course programme that suits you down to the ground, specializing as you go for a perfectly tailored experience.
- Postgraduate courses in the UK are shorter than both the US and Australia, with many MBA's taking just one year. So you get better value for money and can begin applying your knowledge in the real world a lot sooner.
- UK courses offer lots of ways to take your first steps into the world of work.

HOW IT WORKS:

Applying to a UK university or college

Find courses in the UCAS search tool. Check entry requirements and application deadlines:

- > 15 October – all courses at Oxford, Cambridge and most courses in medicine, veterinary science / medicine and dentistry.
- > 15 January – the majority of courses.

1
Apply online

The universities or colleges will decide whether to make you an offer. It'll be

- > either unconditional if you've already met the entry requirements.
- > or conditional if the offer's based on your exam results.

2
Wait to hear back

If you're not accepted by all five universities or colleges, or you decline the offers you receive, you can use Extra to apply for more choices, one at a time.

3
Reply to your offers

Once all the decisions are in, you have to reply to your offers by a specific deadline.

- > Select a firm choice – this is your first choice.
- > If your firm choice is conditional, select an insurance choice too, if you want – this is a back-up choice in case you don't meet the conditions for your firm choice.
- > Decline any other offers.

You'll see in Track if your place is confirmed.

- > If your firm choice is unconditional – the place is yours!
- > If your place is conditional, the university or college will update your status when they have your exam results or other evidence that you've met the conditions.
- > You may be unsuccessful if you don't meet the conditions – in this case you can use Clearing to apply for more courses.

4
Find out if you've got your place

If you do better than expected, and meet and exceed the conditions of your firm choice, you can look for an alternative course using Adjustment, if you want to.
